FRÜHWALD, VICTOR, b. 1885.

Victor Frühwald notebook and album, 1913-1930.

1 volume (76 leaves); 21 cm.

M-0071

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Austrian plastic surgeon. He was the author of Korrektiv-Kosmetische Chirurgie der Nase, der Ohren und des Gesichtes (Vienna: Wilhelm Maudrich, 1932; 2d ed., 1952); an English translation by Geoffrey Morey was published by Maudrich in the same year as Plastic Surgery of the Nose, Ear and Face.

SCOPE AND CONTENT: Album and notebook kept by Frühwald during the lecture and surgical demonstration tours he gave in the United States in 1913, 1922-24, 1927, 1928 and 1930. Included are names and addresses of surgeons, many of whom presumably took his courses; 18 photographs of patients before and after operations and two portrait photographs; illustrations of plastic surgery operations from unidentified German-language texts; business cards of physicians; a clipping announcing Frühwald's course from the February 1928 issue of the Lehigh County Medical Bulletin (Allentown, PA); and notes and annotations, most likely in Frühwald's hand, listing attendees at courses, fees paid, etc.

Most of the names in the volume are of American surgeons; they are from every part of the country and many come from notably small towns. However, there are also names or business cards from Canada, Great Britain, Australia, New Zealand, Japan, China, India and Russia.

With the volume were an undated review of Frühwald's Korrektiv-Kosmetische Chirurgie from an unidentified German-language publication, and a photocopy of his 1949 account of his arrest, conviction and eventual acquittal on appeal of charges of participating in Nazi radio broadcasts in Austria in 1944.

LANGUAGE: German.

ACCESS: Because Confidential Health Information (CHI) as defined by Columbia University policies governing data security and privacy may be found throughout the volume, access is allowed only under the terms of Archives and Special Collections' Access Policy to Records Containing Confidential Health Information.

REMOVALS: The newspaper clipping and photocopy have been removed to the Miscellaneous Manuscripts collection.

PROVENANCE: Purchase (acc. #2003.08.12)
