

Archives & Special Collections, Columbia University Health Sciences Library

Aileen I. Hogan "Letters from Second General"

HOGAN, AILEEN I., d. 1981.

"Letters from Second General, 1942-1945" [compiled, circa 1980]

1 volume (269 pages)

#M-0094

SUMMARY: Photocopy of transcripts of letters written by Aileen I. Hogan, a 1940 graduate of the Columbia University School of Nursing, while serving in the U.S. Army Nurse Corps as a member of the Second General Hospital (Presbyterian Hospital, New York). The volume is illustrated with copies of photographs, newspaper clippings, flyers, maps, programs, and bank notes. The letters were edited by Ruth M. Lee.

The 2nd General reached England in July 1942 and was stationed at Oxford, with a detachment in Northern Ireland. The unit arrived in France in late July 1944 and was based at Lison, Normandy, July-November, 1944 and then at Nancy where they remained until August 1945.

RELATED COLLECTIONS: A note in the volume indicates that the originals of Hogan's letters are in Special Collections, Milbank Library, Teachers College.

PROVENANCE: Gift of Columbia University-Presbyterian Hospital School of Nursing Alumni Association, 1998 (acc. #98.09.03b).

Subjects

Hogan, Aileen I., d. 1981.

Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center.

United States. Army. 2d General Hospital.

United States. Army – Nurses – Correspondence.

Presbyterian Hospital – (New York, N.Y.)

Military hospitals – United States.

Nurses – United States – Correspondence.

World War, 1939-1945 – Medical care – Europe, Western.

World War, 1939-1945 – Personal narratives, American.

World War, 1939-1945 – Hospitals.