

Archives & Special Collections, Columbia University Health Sciences Library

Daniel W. Kissam, Jr. Documents

KISSAM, DANIEL W., JR.

Daniel W. Kissam, Jr. documents, 1814-1815.

2 items.

M-0228

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Daniel W. Kissam, Jr. received his medical degree from New York City's College of Physicians and Surgeons in 1815. From August 1813 to August 1814, he served as House Physician at New York Hospital. He died in 1835.

SCOPE AND CONTENT: Two documents received by Daniel W. Kissam, Jr. who graduated from the College of Physicians and Surgeons in 1815. One is a letter probably from Abraham Hasbrouck, dated Kingston, New York, April 29, 1815, requesting Kissam's help in buying several specified surgical instruments; the other is an 1814 note from William Torrey asking if Kissam would let his son, John Torrey, borrow books from the New York Hospital library. It is counter-signed by William Hammersley.

ACCESS: Open.

LANGUAGE: English.

PROVENANCE: Gift of Robert J. Myers, 2021 (accession #2021.026)

LOCATION: Miscellaneous Manuscripts, Box 7, folder 14.

Subjects:

Surgical instruments and apparatus.

Torrey, John, 1796-1873.